

designated window of time from UPCOB). Full memberships are $120 for fruit shares and $750 for vegetable shares, with half-shares of vegetables also available at $450. (An informal price comparison of some of last year's boxes with local organic supermarket prices indicated substantial savings in buying through the CSA.) See more details at www.lancasterfarmfresh.com. Contact UPCOB at upcob@aol.com or 301-864-4328 for more details and to indicate interest (being a pickup site is dependent on establishing enough purchasers to make it worth the Co-op's while to deliver to any site).

Seeking a room to rent: Hi, I'm looking to rent a room in the DC area that is accessible to public transportation. I am in a time of transition, so I am seeking a room that I can rent on a month-to-month basis and which is affordably priced (preferably $700 or under). I'm a kind, respectful woman who would enjoy the company of other kind, personable roommates. Please contact Abby at moyerabigail01@gmail.com with any information or questions.

Interested in a CSA membership to buy vegetables and fruits? University Park COB is hoping to be a pickup site in the coming season for Lancaster Farm Fresh, an organic farmers' cooperative located in Leola, Pa. The cooperative is owned by nearly 70 Amish and Mennonite farmers growing certified-organic produce and raising grass-fed animals. Each week during a 28-week season, members will receive a box of vegetables and/or fruits filled with whatever is being harvested at that time (to be picked up during a
