Service Committee would like to encourage folks to participate in this year's Earth Day activities. One tried and true event that is always satisfying to be a part of is the Anacostia Watershed Society's Earth Day River Cleanup and Celebration, which will be held this year on Saturday, April 24 from 8:30 a.m.-noon 30+ cleanup sites along the shores of the Anacostia River in the District of Columbia and several upstream tributaries in Prince George's and Montgomery Counties in Maryland. Noon-2 p.m. Earth Day Celebration at Anacostia Park in Washington, DC featuring a free picnic lunch, music and presentations by community organizations and government officials. For more details on participating please contact Corrie Mauldin (corriemauldin@gmail.com) or go to AWS' website: <http://www.anacostiaws.org/programs/stewardship/earthday>

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Save the Date! Sunday, April 25, will officially kick-off The Open Door Campaign to raise the funding needed to proceed with our building project. See the April Hymn for more information. If you have questions, contact Kirsten Peterson. Thank you!

Welcome to Ed and Ruth Wiebe who joined the International Guest House staff as SOOP volunteers for April and May. The Wiebes are from British Columbia, Canada.

The Servant Leadership School, located at 1640 Columbia Road NW, is offering classes with the following titles, "Charter for Compassion," "Racial Reconciliation, from Theory to Practice," "The Spirituality of Imperfection," "The Call of The Earth," "Why Should We Care About Justice in the Holy Land?" "Relapse Prevention" and "Bible 101." You can enroll online at www.festivalcenter.org or call Joseph Deck, the program director at 202-328-0072. The Spring 2010 semester will run each Tuesday night from 7-8:30 p.m. from April 27-June 15. Please join us for our Tuesday night dinner hour that starts at 6 p.m. where we listen to dynamic speakers and witness good musical presentations on some evenings. The costs of the classes are $50 if you are registering for the first time or $100 if you are a returning student. Scholarships are available and will be evaluated on a case by case basis.

The Mennonite subscriptions (new and renewing) are due to the church office today. Please pick a form from the foyer table or respond to the email sent out on the list serve on April 6.

Please register for the April 16-18 men's retreat by emailing atice@hyattsvillemennonite.org.
