ANNOUNCEMENTS

Tuesday evening, July 27, 7:30 p.m. Many of us have heard the saying that the most segregated places in our society are our churches. On Tuesday, July 27 at 7:30 p.m. we will show the film The Second Chance, a movie highlighting issues surrounding our consistently segregated churches. An open discussion will follow the movie as part of a broader participation in DC-area churches through Grace and Race, an ecumenical ministry developed to equip and empower participants to provide leadership to help foster racial understanding, healing and reconciliation. The discussion is a space for asking questions, as well as for responding to the movie and to one another. Join us for the viewing and discussion Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. Learn more about Grace and Race Ministries at graceandrace.org.

The refugee family from Darfur is trying to locate more accommodating housing. The family of five (mother, father, 5 year old girl, 3 year old son and 6 month old son) currently live in a one bedroom apartment where their lease is up in September. They would like to move to a two bedroom apartment in the area, but are aware it will be difficult finding a larger apartment for the same
