

and the Brethren Church will offer presentations of their work, talk about their personal journey and share how their art intersects with their faith. Eva Beidler started off the series this past Sunday sharing her work with watercolor and this Sunday, Sept. 19, Katrina Toews will be talking about dance as her art. Katrina works with the Washington Ballet at The ARC in southeast DC. Upcoming artists will be announced. Please come and join the discussions of how art may intersect with faith.

End of Year Reports: All committee chairs, coordinators, congregational representatives and others who report to the congregation via the annual report booklet, please note that your reports are due in to the church office by Wednesday, Sept. 29. Please submit your reports to Annabelle by mailing them to the church office, putting them in her church mailbox or sending them by email to akratz@hyattsvillemennonite.org. Thanks in advance for getting your reports in on time – or even before!

Keep those photos coming! Please submit a photo in the next several weeks to be included on the bulletin board. Make it a smallish (about wallet size) copy so we can get everyone's picture on the bulletin board. Give your copy to Annabelle or put it in her mailbox. Thanks.
