Adult Ed class at UPCOB — Please join us at 9:30 a.m. on Sunday mornings for our series exploring the intersection between faith and art. Each week we will hear from an artist who will help us learn from his/her personal journey as an artist and introduce us to some of his/her art. Today, Kimberly Schmidt will discuss the history of art and its changing role in the Anabaptist tradition. On Oct. 3 we will hear from a renowned photographer from the Brethren tradition. We will wrap up the series on Nov. 14 with an art show, so if you are successful, struggling or part-time artist who would like to share your work, this may be your breakthrough opportunity. See Denise and Richard Brown for more information.

Community Reading (Psalm 91:1-6, 14-16)

Leader: You who live in the shelter of the Most High,
Who abide in the shadow of the Almighty,
Will say to the Lord,

People: ‘My refuge and my fortress;
My God, in whom I trust.’

L: For God says: “I will rescue you from the snare and shield you from poison arrows.

P: I will cover you with my pinions;
under my wings you will take refuge;
my faithfulness will shield you.

L: You will not fear the terror of the night,
or the arrow that flies by day,
or the pestilence that stalks in darkness,
or the destruction that wastes at noonday.

All: *Because you love me, I will deliver you;
I will protect you because you know my name.
When you call to me, I will answer you;
I will be with you in trouble,
I will deliver you and honor you,
I will satisfy you with a long life,
and show you my salvation.
