Seekers Class — If you are interested in exploring faith, your own as well as what Mennonites teach and believe, join the Seekers Sunday School class this fall. People new to the congregation and even old members are welcome to participate. Contact Cindy or Adam for more information.

Saturday, November 13, Mennonite Disaster Service is having a community meal (10:30 a.m.-1 p.m.) with a program of dedication and worship at 1:30 p.m. to celebrate the completion of their new bi-national office and warehouse in Lititz, Pa. They also will be celebrating 60 years of service! There will be singing, a program and tours. I am going to drive up and I would love to take anyone from HMC who would like to attend. I have room for five. Older teens who would like a fun day and a real insight into MDS service project opportunities in the USA and Canada are very welcome. ANNOUNCEMENTS

Welcome to Dirk Miller and Merlin and Mary Grieser who are serving at the International Guest House. Dirk has accepted a one year VS assignment and comes to us from Iowa. The Griesers are here for a short-term assignment, come from the Plains Mennonite congregation in Hatfield, Pa., and are the parents of Mira.

November’s Fellowship Meal will be held on November 21 instead of our traditional second Sunday. We will be welcoming new members on that Sunday and want to welcome them with our Fellowship Meal hospitality.

Engaging the Powers — the "Race Matters" group is seeking copies of Engaging the Powers by Walter Wink for a book study. If you have a copy to lend or would like to join in reading and studying the book please contact Cindy Lapp or Judy Nord.

Do you have out-of-town friends or relatives who would like to spend some extended time in Washington, D.C.? The International Guest House is in need of volunteers for 2011. This is a great opportunity to extend Christian hospitality to international travelers as they visit our area, as well as an opportunity for the volunteer himself/herself to personally experience the attractions of Washington, D.C. Terms can be anywhere from one month to 12 months. Contact Annabelle for more information at akratz@hyattsvillemennonite.org.

Interfaith Dialogue — Sunday, November 7, the Montgomery County Interfaith Council will be hosting an afternoon conference: Peace in Action: Interfaith Stories. Striving for Peace in our Communities and our World. Cindy Lapp will be the respondent
