

Do you have out-of-town friends or relatives who would like to spend some extended time in Washington, D.C.? The International Guest House is in need of volunteers for 2011. This is a great opportunity to extend Christian hospitality to international travelers as they visit our area, as well as an opportunity for the volunteer himself/herself to personally experience the attractions of Washington, D.C. Terms can be anywhere from one month to 12 months. Contact Annabelle for more information (akratz@hyattsvillemennonite.org).

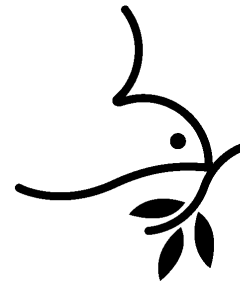

Our Thanksgiving food drive items will go this year to Help by Phone, a local food bank. Sunday November 14 and 21, please bring a selection of the following items: (Prince Georges County Health Dept. requires all food items to be in sealed containers or boxes) oatmeal or grits, dry milk (smaller size), pancake mix, peanut butter, jelly, soup, spaghetti, pork and beans, mac and cheese, beef stew, tuna, vegetables, jello, fruit, pudding, baby food.

Housemate wanted: There is a recently vacated room in the house on 43rd Avenue owned by Hyattsville Mennonite Church, and the remaining three tenants are in search of a housemate. If you know of anyone who may be interested, please put them in touch with Vaughn Climenhaga at vaughn.climenhaga@gmail.com or 814-441-0762, or talk to either Vaughn or Kirsten for further information.

Church List Serve: Join the HMC list serve to receive announcements and sharing each week. Send your request to hmcadmin@hyattsvillemennonite.org

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Welcoming new members – The Pastorate recommends the following people for membership at HMC: Micah Tillman, Cheryl Shreiner and Wendel Landes and Harold Confer as associate member. They will share their spiritual journeys with the congregation and be received into membership on November 21.

November's Fellowship Meal will be held on November 21 instead of our traditional 2nd Sunday. We will be welcoming new members on that Sunday and want to welcome them with our Fellowship Meal hospitality.

To HMC Parents! This Advent, in the creative spirit of worship, we will be involving children in various ways during worship. There will be scripture dramatization (costumed animals), song, dance and playing music. There will not be a Christmas pageant, this year. The first Sunday of Advent is November 28, and each week there will be a different opportunity to participate. If you are interested please contact: Denise Brown, Cynthia Lapp or Adam Tice.

Many thanks to everyone who helped last weekend with the Ten Thousand Villages sale. Because of the effort of so many people, the sale went smoothly and raised a good amount toward the livelihood of people around the world. Totals this year were about $8,400 for the TTV sale and $730 for the bake sale. Thanks!!
