

Film Premiere: You're invited to the official world premiere of The Line (www.thelinemovie.com) on Tuesday, Oct. 2 at the Gwendolyn and Morris Cafritz Theatre. The Line is a documentary chronicling the new face of poverty in America. Immediately following the screening, a panel of experts — featuring Jim Wallis, president and CEO of Sojourners, and producer Linda Midgett — will discuss the film and its impact. The event is free and open to the public; however an RSVP at www.sojo.net/thelinedc is required as space is limited. Guests must plan to arrive no later than 7:30 p.m. and seating is on a first-come, first-served basis.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Prayer Cards. If you would like to share a prayer request in writing rather than verbally during the service, please find cards by the bulletin board in the back of the church. You can place the cards in the box labeled “prayer requests”.

Church Directory: Yes, it's time to update the directory. As it is only published annually, there are certainly a lot of changes to be made, whether that's a change of address or you've only started attending since last October. We invite everyone to fill out their information for the directory so we can get to know you, whether you've been attending for 30 years or only three Sundays. Please take a form located at the back of the church by the bulletin board, fill it out (even if nothing has changed), and return to Jake Short by TODAY, Sunday, Sept. 30. Thanks.

Warm Nights Meeting: Everyone is invited to a meeting on Sunday, Oct. 7 at 9:30 a.m., in the UPCoB basement, to learn more about homelessness and poverty in Prince George's County and to discuss HMC's service projects for the coming year. Our guest speaker will be from Warm Nights (the program in which we provide a week of shelter in the winter) and she'll tell us more about how the program fits with the bigger picture of homeless services in the county, so bring your questions. We'll also hear from those who have coordinated HMC's work on Warm Nights, Community Cafe, and Ten Thousand Villages this past year. Your participation will help in another way too: Warm Nights gets funding from Fannie Mae Foundation when you participate in their outreach events, like this one! There will be a light breakfast, so please come.

World Communion Sunday: As part of World Communion Sunday on Oct. 7, we are asking people to bring in food items to be donated to Help by Phone. A list of items needed is posted on the bulletin board in the back of the church. All foods must be canned or dried and in sealed containers to meet health department requirements. Thanks.

Membership Transfer: If you are interested in transferring your church membership to Hyattsville Mennonite, please talk to Cindy for more information: clapp@hyattsvillemennonite.org.

HMC Annual Retreat, Oct. 12-14: Due to the church retreat that weekend, there will be no regular worship service held at Hyattsville Mennonite. You are encouraged to worship with University Park Church of the Brethren if you are unable to attend the retreat.
