June 14 Fellowship Meal: June Food Holiday Celebration: Did you know that June is a month full of Food Holidays? Our June Fellowship Meal will feature June Holiday foods. There are many to choose from. June is National Dairy Month, National Fresh Fruit and Vegetable Month, National Iced Tea Month,

National Seafood Month, National Soul Food Month, and National Candy Month. Even Kitchen Klutzes of America have their day in June so there is something for everyone. Please bring plenty of June food to help celebrate the month and your own table service if possible.

Capital Pride Interfaith Service: The Capital Pride Interfaith Service will have the theme “Radical Equality: Faith, Race, & Justice”. This service will explore our response to issues of racial justice in LGBT communities of faith and society and will feature Rev. Cedric A. Harmon and Lisbeth Melendez-Rivera. The service is THIS Tuesday, June 9, at 7:30 p.m. at All Souls Unitarian Church, 1500 Harvard St. NW and coordinated by DC Center Faith.

Furniture for the Foyer: Thanks to all of you who donated funds to make the benches in our foyer a reality. They have been a great success! If you are enjoying them, please consider making an additional donation or donating for the first time to our furniture for the foyer fund so we can also purchase the planned chairs. Donations for the fund can be placed in the regular offering (earmark them furniture for the foyer) or given directly to Kelly Heatwole.

MVS Coordinator Position: The Washington, DC Mennonite Voluntary Service Unit (MVS) is seeking a Local Program Coordinator (LPC) for the unit based in the Columbia Heights neighborhood. This is a part-time, contractual position with an average of 15 hours per week. Hours are flexible, include some evenings and weekends, and can be highly variable depending on the time of year. Mid-August through September tends to be the busiest time of year. Compensation will be commensurate with experience. Start date is ideally mid-June to beginning of July. Preference is for a 2-year commitment. Contact Kirsten Peterson for position description at: [REDACTED].

Allegheny Mennonite Conference Sister Church Opportunity: You are invited to attend an outdoor service and hymn sing on Sunday, July 19, at Stahl Mennonite Church in Johnstown, Pennsylvania.
