Call to Worship: from Psalm 45:9-14

Annabeth Roeschley

Leader: Within your temple, O God,
we meditate on your unfailing love.

All: Like your name, O God, your praise reaches to the ends of the earth;

Leader: Your right hand is filled with righteousness.

Mount Zion rejoices,

Older: the villages of Judah are glad because of your judgments.

Younger: Walk about Zion, go around her, count her towers,

Leader: consider well her ramparts, view her citadels,

Older: that you may tell of them to the next generation.

Younger: For this God is our God for ever and ever;

All: God will be our guide even to the end.

Hymn: HWB 76 – Praise, I will praise you, Lord

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Out of the Office: Cynthia Lapp will be gone Sunday, July 28 through Friday, July 10. Michelle Burkholder will be gone to the Kansas City 2015 MCUSA convention from Thursday, July 2 through Sunday, July 5, and then will be gone July 10-12.

Pastoral Care: Herb Reed and Crissie Buckwalter, members of the Pastorate, will be available for pastoral care during the times Cynthia Lapp and Michelle Burkholder are gone over the next two weeks.

Fellowship Meal, July 12: Getting To Know Our "Church Neighbors": During the recent visioning process we heard that the congregation is open to letting another congregation use our space if it 1.) doesn't infringe on the time we need the building, and 2.) if we can get to know them. We currently have a small congregation, Centro Internacional de Oración, using the space Friday evenings and Sunday afternoons. As a way to get to know CIO, we will share our monthly fellowship meal with them next Sunday, July 12. Please plan to bring an extra dish to share with these friends as we get to know each other around a meal.

Community Café: Thanks to everyone who signed up to provide food and serve in July. Because of the Labor Day holiday, HMC will not serve in September, but will be back again to serve Monday, November 2.
