

Jim Wallis Book Signings: This month, you have three opportunities to join Sojourners president Jim Wallis in Washington, D.C. for events featuring his new book: America's Original Sin: Racism, White Privilege, and the Bridge to a New America.

- Sunday, Jan. 24 at 11 a.m., Jim will be preaching at Shiloh Baptist Church on themes from his book.
- Thursday, Jan. 28 from 7:00-9:00 p.m., Jim will be giving a talk on the book and signing copies at Calvary Baptist Church.
- Saturday, Jan. 30 from 3:30-5:00 p.m., Jim will give a talk and sign books at Politics and Prose.

In America's Original Sin, Jim offers a prophetic and deeply personal call to action in overcoming the racism so ingrained in American society. He speaks candidly to Christians, urging them to cross a new bridge toward racial justice and healing. These events are free and open to the public.

Report on the Service Committee's financial donations during 2015: For the $500 that was given to Hyattsville during the Christmas season of 2014 by an anonymous donor to be used for food donations, the Service Committee decided to send $250 to Help-By-Phone and $250 to the College Park Food Bank. For the $550 that was in our yearly budget for 2015, the committee decided to give $275 to The Center on Conscience & War (<http://www.centeronconscience.org>) for its work in defending the rights of conscientious objectors and $275 to One DC -- Organizing Neighborhood Equity (<http://www.onedonline.org/>), an organization whose mission is to exercise political strength to create and preserve racial and economic equity in Shaw and the District. These last two organizations were suggestions offered by the congregation in our Service Giving Survey that Angie Wiens conducted in 2014.
