

from the congregation to support doing so on a regular basis. For our first meal, Lutheran Social Services has identified ten individuals—three families that include four children between the ages of 4 and 10—who arrived in the US last week and are available for a welcoming meal on Thursday, Feb. 4. We are planning to serve a halal meal in the fellowship hall at HMC that evening. Cathy Kerst is coordinating the meal, and since these families have so recently arrived and are not yet familiar with local bus service, we need help transporting the families from the Parkview Apts. in Riverdale to the church for a 6:30 p.m. meal, and then transporting them back home. If you can help, contact Cathy Kerst: [REDACTED].

Call to Worship

Jeanette Stoltzfus

Leader: Loud talkers and silent worriers, glad-handers and lonely wallflowers:

All: God gathers us together to be the Body of wonder and joy, of hope and healing.

Leader: Bystanders with hands shoved into our pockets,
fraidy-cats whose feet are frozen in place:

All: Jesus calls us to carry grace to outsiders, to walk with all those left behind.

Leader: Kids who never offer answers in class,
bashful folks whose tongues tie in knots:

All: The Spirit anoints us to speak up for the voiceless, to partner with the poor to discover their gifts.

Hymn: HWB 21 – All praise to our redeeming Lord Joanne Gallardo

Confessing

Confession (based on Psalm 19)

Lord God, we have heard your word to us in scripture that your law is perfect, reviving the soul. We confess that our souls are deadened, in need of reviving.

We have heard that your commandments are clear, enlightening the eyes. We confess that our sight is made dim by prejudice and pride.

We have heard that your ordinances are true and righteous.

Prayer Cards: If you want to share a prayer request in writing rather than verbally during the service, please use the space below, tear out this box, and place it in the prayer card box on the table in the foyer. Members of the Pastorate hold your joys, concerns, and sharings in prayer, both those shared verbally during the service and in writing.

We confess that we disregard your will for us; we are too eager to believe what is false, to treat injustice with indifference.

O God, forgive us.

Meals: Meadow and Tim Platt would appreciate some meals in February as they welcome Rose Mary to the family. You can sign up on SignUp Genius at <http://www.signupgenius.com/go/4090449afa8283-meals3> or email: [REDACTED].

Adult Participants for Youth Rolling Ridge Retreat: The Senior High Youth will be having a retreat at Rolling Ridge the weekend of March 11-13. Michelle and family will be attending the retreat and are looking for a few other adults to come along for the weekend as participants and helpers for food prep, fun and games, etc. Are you available to come away for the weekend to relax, retreat and hang out with HMC youth? Let Michelle know of your interest at [REDACTED].

Childcare Needed: We are looking for a caregiver to start watching Corinna in mid-March 2016. The person should be available Monday through Friday during the day. The person will need to have their own transportation. If interested, please contact Katrina Toews: [REDACTED].

Transportation needed for refugee families on Thursday, Feb. 4: Last fall, the outreach coordinator for Lutheran Social Services asked if HMC would like to host small welcoming dinners for recent refugee families who have arrived in the US and live not far from the church. The Service Committee decided to organize a dinner to see how it might work and to find out if there was interest
