We will gather at Rolling Ridge on Friday at 8:00 p.m. and end by noon Sunday. Bring what you're reading and learning and share in the discussions of this important civil rights issue. Time for reflection, hiking, and campfire singing. For details, call or text your email to Carolyn Brock at: [REDACTED].

"Resisting with Love & Compassion": This concert is Sunday, June 4, at 3:00 p.m. at All Souls Unitarian Church (1500 Harvard St. NW, Washington, D.C.). A women's choir will sing about love, resistance, and compassion, along with community singing. This is a benefit for La Clínica del Pueblo. For more information, see Karen Minatelli and Cindy Lapp, who are in the choir.

An Open Invitation to Informally Gather: Are you at home on Tuesday mornings with no set plans? Do you have a toddler [or older kids during school break] at home by day? Are you retired? Do you have a flexible work schedule? A telecommuter who would love to work in the company of others for a bit? If any of these describe you and you are interested in spending some time in connection and community, come by the church fellowship hall between 10:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m. on Tuesdays May 30, June 13, and June 27 for intergenerational coffee, tea, conversation, crafts, games, or whatever comes our way. Simon and Michelle will be around for fun, fellowship, and community life. So informal you don't even need to RSVP!
