Confessing

Confession (based on Psalm 116)

One: We love the Lord, for our voice, our pleas are heard.
Many: The ear of the Lord inclines to us when we call, even when the cords of death circle us, even when we find distress and sorrow.

One: And in the name of the Lord we called, "Lord, pray, save our lives". Gracious the Lord and just and our God shows mercy.
Though we plunged downward, we the Lord did rescue.
Many: We return to calm for the Lord has requited us, freed us from death. Our eyes from tears, our feet from slipping.

One: We shall walk before the Lord in the lands of the living.
We who call humankind false but still we trust in the Lord.
Many: What can we give back to the Lord for all that has been given to us?

One: We shall lift the cup of liberation; we shall say our vows to the Lord in the sight of all the people.

Many: We are your servant Lord; we are the children of your handmaiden. You have loosed our bonds and to you shall we offer all thanksgiving. We shall say our vows to the Lord in the sight of all the people, in the courts of the house of the Lord,

All: we say Hallelujah!

Hymn: HWB 50 – Praise the Lord, sing hallelujah

Community Café, July 3: HMC is scheduled to serve Community Café on Monday, July 3. We realize this is in the middle of the 4 of July holiday weekend, so extra help would be most appreciated. Please sign up on the bulletin board or contact Jake Short.

An Open Invitation to Informally Gather: Are you at home on Tuesday mornings with no set plans? Do you have a toddler [or older kids during school break] at home by day? Are you retired? Do you have a flexible work schedule? A telecommuter who would love to work in the company of others for a bit? If any of these describe you and you are interested in spending some time in connection and community, come by the church fellowship hall between 10:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m. on Tuesday June 27 for intergenerational coffee, tea, conversation, crafts, games, or whatever comes our way. Simon and Michelle will be around for fun, fellowship, and community life. So informal you don't even need to RSVP!

Day Center Meal in July: With the closing of University of Maryland's cafeterias for the summer, congregations and community members will provide the meals for the Day Center at University Christian Church (run by Congregations United for Compassion and Empowerment [CUCE]). HMC will provide food on July 20; contact [REDACTED] to help.
