

Day Center Meal: HMC will serve the meal to guests of the PG Plaza Day Center on Thursday, December 20. Our menu will be chili, cornbread, green salad, fruit salad, and cookies/brownies for 40 people. Contact Cindy if you can help provide food and/or help serve: [REDACTED].

Book Discussion: Stanley Yoder is interested in forming a short term group that would discuss the book Color Conscious: the Political Morality of Race by Tony Appiah and Amy Gutmann. The book is an invaluable resource for all who want to think responsibly about the racial dilemmas facing our nation. He invites others to join him. Please contact him at: [REDACTED] if you are interested.

Racial Justice Group Book Discussion: The HMC Racial Justice group recommends members read So You Want To Talk About Race by Ijeoma Oluo. It's a compelling and helpful book. Hope you get a copy! In order to move together as a congregation on this important issue, it helps when more people have a similar base to operate from. Also, we will provide details in coming months of opportunities for discussion topics based on this book. – Dawn Longenecker, Dan Shenk-Evans, Dan Daughtry-Weiss, Robin Fernkas

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Church Cleanup Day: Join us for church cleanup day THIS Saturday, December 1, starting at 8:30 a.m. Please bring any tools you have that would be helpful in cleanup and tidying in and around the church building. Coffee and donuts will also be available.

December 9 Fellowship Meal: This will be our Christmas Fellowship Meal and we have invited the San Mateo congregation to join us. Hospitality committee will provide ham, and please bring more food (Christmas favorite) to share. Bring your own table services if possible.

Sunday School for All Ages in December: Sunday School in December will not be held at UPCoB. Instead, we will gather at HMC for a variety of activities before church starting on December 2, when we will gather together to assemble gift bags for the Day Center guests (see below announcement). A traditional Sunday School class will be offered for the 2/3s in the nursery at HMC. Stay tuned for more information yet to come about additional activities during the SS hour in December. For Adult Education, there will be two options. Cindy Lapp will lead a drop-in choir in some new pieces that could potentially land in the new hymnal. Those who attend will have the opportunity to sing at the Christmas Eve service, but it is not required. Location TBA. If singing isn't for you, come to an informal discussion group at the church house (6220 43rd Ave.). Please come with a favorite seasonal poem, song, story or anything really, to share and discuss as a group.

Christmas Bags for the PG Plaza Day Center: Christmas lands on a Tuesday this year and the PG Plaza Day Center will be open at University Christian Church. Several local churches have volunteered to create gift bags to pass out to day center guests on Christmas day. During the Sunday School hour on Sunday, December 2, we will be gathering in the fellowship hall to assemble several gift bags. Follow this link to sign up for items requested to be included as gifts for the guests. Please consider signing up to bring some of the needed supplies and plan to come to the church at 9:30 a.m. on December 2 to join in gift bag assembly: <https://bit.ly/2DMjjco>.
