Praising

Call to Worship* Janet Reedy

One: A voice of one calling: in the desert prepare the way for our God;
make straight in the wilderness a highway for our God.

All: Every valley shall be raised up, every mountain and hill made low; the rough ground shall become level, the rugged places a plain. And the glory of our God will be revealed, and all people together will see it.

One: I have a dream that one day every valley shall be exalted,
every hill and mountain shall be made low,
the rough places will be made straight and the glory of the Lord shall be revealed and all flesh shall see it together.

Readings from Langston Hughes:

“I Dream A World”

“A Dream Deferred”

Hymn: STS 112 – My Lord, he is a-comin' soon

Confessing

Confession**

High voices: By opening our lives to God in Christ, we become new creatures. This experience, which Jesus spoke of as the new birth, is essential if we are to be transformed nonconformists...

Only through an inner spiritual transformation do we gain the strength to fight vigorously the evils of the world in a humble and loving spirit.

Low voices: Now there is a final reason I think that Jesus says, "Love your enemies." It is this: that love has within it a redemptive power. And there is a power there that eventually transforms individuals.

All: The God whom we worship is not a weak and incompetent God. He is able to beat back gigantic waves of opposition and to bring low prodigious mountains of evil. The ringing testimony of the Christian faith is that God is able.

Hymn: HWB 553 – I am weak and I need thy strength
