Environmental Film Showing at HMC, June 16: The HMC Greens invite you the morning of Sunday, June 16, at 9:00 a.m. for a showing of Paris to Pittsburgh, accompanied by a light breakfast. This kind of film brings hope and energy - we can do things about this critical issue. "From coastal cities to America's heartland, Americans are demanding and developing real solutions in the face of climate change. As the weather grows more deadly and destructive, they aren't waiting on Washington to act. Learn about their incredible stories in Paris to Pittsburgh."

IGH Summer Help Needed: The International Guest House needs some extra hands this summer! We are still looking for full-time volunteers, so please refer anyone who might be interested to Sara Fretz-Goering. And we need local volunteers who can give a few hours at a time to make or bring a batch of cookies or lunch, wash and fold sheets and towels, vacuum and mop floors, or bake IGH's famous granola and muesli. Even a few hours will help lighten the load for our amazing new hosts and help provide a home away from home for visitors from around the world. Please sign up here: <https://bit.ly/2YPNeam>, and ask board members Sara, Kim, Val, Richard, Marlin, Stan, and hosts Linda and Dave Miller to learn more about IGH.

Summer Reflection Series: Following in the footsteps of the last two summers, the Worship Committee is inviting people to share their reflections on a specific topic during our morning worship. This year’s theme is: Spiritual Practice. What are Spiritual Practices? Almost anything can be a spiritual practice if you participate in it with an attitude of intentionality and openness. Spiritual practices make space for us to listen, learn, ground, and grow our spirits. For some, this may be a more traditional practice like prayer, scripture study, yoga, or meditation. For others it may be washing dishes, walking, fixing things around the house, or creating things. The field of definition is wide open for this series, and we would love to hear from you. What spiritual practice/s do you take part in? What have you gleaned from participating in a spiritual practice? We are looking for 2-3 people to share reflections on June 9, 23, or July 7. Interested in speaking or have questions? Contact Michelle or worship committee chair, Tabitha.
