Call to Worship

Erica Kraybill

One: God has shown us what is good. What then is required of us?

All: To act justly, love mercy, and walk humbly with our God.

One: Jesus says: Anyone who welcomes you, welcomes me.

And anyone who welcomes me welcomes the One who sent me.

All: The Spirit says, "Come."

And let each one who hears the Spirit say,

"Come," for all are welcome here.

One: Let us worship God!

Hymn: HWB 229 – Tú has venido a la orilla

Confessing

Prayer of Confession

All: We give thanks that You seek to unite all things in heaven and in earth, and to reconcile all people to one another and to You.

We confess that the new creation is not yet complete in us, and that we feel everywhere the barriers that separate humankind.

Forgive us, and fill us with the spirit of oneness.

Reveal to us those places where our pride and prejudice have built walls that separate us from one another. Amen.

Welcome: This morning we welcome Rachele Lyndaker Schlabach, director of the Mennonite Central Committee (MCC) Washington Office, who is bringing us the message.

Spiritual Practice Reflection Series: We continue this three-part series on Spiritual Practice on June 23. What are Spiritual Practices? Almost anything can be a spiritual practice if you participate in it with an attitude of intentionality and openness. Spiritual practices make space for us to listen, learn, ground, and grow our spirits. This may be a more traditional like prayer, scripture study, yoga, or meditation, or also washing dishes, walking, fixing things around the house, or creating things. Three people from HMC will share about their spiritual practices on June 23 and July 7 during the sermon time.

HMC/House Church Joint Potluck, June 26: Have you thought about who is under your carbon footprint, and how that impacts your own choices? You’re invited to hear a firsthand account from the global south of the shifting climate and its effects there. On Wednesday, June 26, at 6:30 p.m., Community House Church and HMC will host a potluck meal followed by a presentation by Dr. Sibonokuhle Ncube of Harare, Zimbabwe.
