Confessing

Prayer of Confession

*All: We believe in a bright and amazing God who has been to the depths of despair
on our behalf;
who has risen in splendor and grace;
who decorates the universe
with sparkling water, clear bright light, twinkling stars and sharp colors,
over and over and over again.*

*We believe that Jesus is the light of the world;
that God believes in us, and trusts us, even though we make the same mistakes
over and over and over again.*

*We commit ourselves
to the path of Jesus,
to one another as siblings,
and to the Maker's business in the world.*

Hymn: STJ 16 – Praise with joy the world's Creator

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Spiritual Practice Reflection Series: We continue this three-part series on Spiritual Practice today and will finish it on July 7. What are Spiritual Practices? Almost anything can be a spiritual practice if you participate in it with an attitude of intentionality and openness. Spiritual practices make space for us to listen, learn, ground, and grow our spirits. This may be a more traditional like prayer, scripture study, yoga, or meditation, or also washing dishes, walking, fixing things around the house, or creating things. Three people from HMC will share during the sermon time.

HMC/House Church Joint Potluck, June 26: Have you thought about who is under your carbon footprint, and how that impacts your own choices? You’re invited to hear a firsthand account from the global south of the shifting climate and its effects there. On Wednesday, June 26, at 6:30 p.m., Community House Church and HMC will host a potluck meal followed by a presentation by Dr. Sibonokuhle Ncube of Harare, Zimbabwe. Dr. Sibonokuhle Ncube is the National Coordinator of Compassionate Development Service – the relief and development agency of the Brethren in Christ Church of Zimbabwe. She has 18 years of experience in various development contexts, including programs in climate change management, climate finance governance, and disaster preparedness. See the flyer on the bulletin board for more information.

Day Center Meal Help Still Needed!: HMC is providing and serving lunch for our homeless neighbors at the PG Plaza Day Center at University Christian Church on Thursday, June 27, from 1:00 – 3:00 p.m. If you would like to provide a dish, but can’t drop it off on Thursday, bring it to our church kitchen by Wednesday evening, and we will transport it for you. You can sign up using the signup sheet on the lobby bulletin board, or sign up here: <https://bit.ly/2wIvj9i>, or contact Lisa at: [REDACTED]. Thanks!
