Call to Worship (adapted from Marlene Kropf)

Cynthia Lapp

One: Welcome to worship.

All: God welcomes us all to worship today.

One: If you are delighted to be here and if you are tired or troubled,

All: you are welcome.

One: If your faith is strong, and if your faith is battered or frail,

All: you are welcome.

One: If you are eager to praise God and if you need to be quiet,

All: you are welcome.

One: God welcomes us all to worship today

and promises to meet us here.

All: We are all welcome in this place.

Scripture Reading:

Luke 19:1-10

All: Entering Jericho, Jesus passed through the city. There was a wealthy person there named Zacchaeus, the chief tax collector. Zacchaeus was trying to see who Jesus was, but he couldn't do so because of the crowd, since he was short. In order to see Jesus, Zacheaeus ran on ahead, then climbed a sycamore tree that was along the route.

One: When Jesus came to the spot, he looked up and said, "Zacchaeus, hurry up and come down. I am going to stay at your house today."

All: Zacchaeus quickly climbed down and welcomed Jesus with delight. When everyone saw this they began to grumble, "Jesus has gone to a sinner's house as a guest."

Two: Zacchaeus stood his ground and said to Jesus, "Here and now I will give half my belongings to poor people. If I have defrauded anyone in the least, I'll pay them back fourfold."

One: Jesus said to the tax collector, "Today salvation has come to this house, for this is what it means to be a descendant of Sarah and Abraham.

The Promised One has come to search out and save what was lost."

Announcements

Adult Education Series: Adult Education has begun a new series called "Dismantling the 'Doctrine of Discovery'." After first being formulated centuries ago, this Doctrine has lived on, shaping our religious traditions and theology, not to mention world-wide dispossession, colonization, and settler mentalities. We'll be using resources from our midst and from <https://dofdmverno.org/>, whose work was funded in part by Allegheny Mennonite Conference, which HMC is a part of.

Nursery Update: At this time we will not be providing nursery attendants during in-person worship, but the nursery space will be available for families to use at their own discretion during the service. Littles and their adults are also welcome to make use of the foyer or the fellowship hall to spread out for extra wiggle room during worship as needed. If your risk tolerance is higher and would like to connect with a person outside of your household to help care for your kid(s) during the worship service, please let Michelle Burkholder know so we can arrange a nursery buddy system: mburkholder@hyattsvillemennonite.org.

Livestream Option For Worship: While we are now meeting in-person for worship, we also have a livestream option for those who do not yet feel comfortable rejoining or are unable to rejoin in-person. More details are in the email listserv announcements. Please offer any feedback to one of the pastors.
