Call to Worship

Brian Brubaker

Let us enter the city with God today,

And sing hosannas,

Let us turn our backs on the powers that grasp and control,

And open our hearts to God riding on a mule.

Let us join this parade,

Walking with the rejected of society.

Let us follow the one who brought freedom and peace,

And walk in solidarity with the abandoned and oppressed.

Let us shout for joy at Jesus' coming and join his disciples,

Welcoming the broken, healing the sick, dining with outcasts.

Let us touch and see as God draws near,

Jesus riding in humble triumph.

Congregational Vote on Signing Inclusive Mennonite Pastors' Resolution, April 24: On Sunday, April 24, we will distribute and collect ballots for a vote on Church Council's recommendation: "Hyattsville Mennonite Church should sign on as a congregation in support of 'A RESOLUTION FOR REPENTANCE AND TRANSFORMATION' by the Inclusive Mennonite Pastors." See the online announcements for the text of the resolution and list of signers. This action on behalf of the congregation will require a majority vote of a quorum of members; however, we are interested in receiving input from everyone, including non-members who are active in the congregation. If you will not be present on April 24, contact Kaye Brubaker for an absentee ballot.

Beating Guns, April 23: Author and activist Shane Claiborne will join with Daniels Run Peace Church in Fairfax, VA for the Beating Guns workshop to transform guns into garden tools and discuss issues of domestic gun violence. The workshop will be held on Saturday, April 23 at the church (3927 Old Lee Hwy) starting at 4:00 p.m. Registration is free at danielsrunpeacechurch.org/register.
