

Poor People's Campaign March on Washington, June 17-18: The Poor People's Campaign: A National Call for Moral Revival is returning to Washington on June 18 for the Poor People's and Low-Wage Workers' Assembly and Moral March on Washington and to the Polls. On June 17, the Campaign is making a call for volunteers to help with a large community meal on Freedom Plaza at 5:00 p.m. and a Memorial Service at the Lincoln Memorial at 7:30. Please sign up with the link in the announcements to volunteer with the June 17th meal/memorial. For questions, please contact Tim Shenk (shenkti@gmail.com).

Message from the Church Council, Kaye Brubaker, Chair: The Church Council has appointed a group to work on the process for making decisions about how to spend the funds that HMC will receive from the sale of the International Guest House. This group, the Process Team, will not decide how to spend the funds but will help provide opportunities for the congregation to talk about options for using the $450,000 HMC receives, particularly options related to our mission statement. In-person conversations will be June 26 and August 21 at 9:30 am in the fellowship hall. Zoom conversations are possible as well. We hope small groups will discuss their dreams and ideas and share back with members of the Church Council. More information will come from the Process Team on a regular basis in the next months.

Cindy Away This Week: Pastor Cindy will be away this week, June 13-19. For pastoral care please contact Trinda Groff or Sharon Andre.

Assistive Listening Devices are available. Please ask an usher for assistance.

Call to Worship

LeAnne Zook

Come into this space and know the Builder of this world, the Creator of all who live and breath and have being in it,
God of many names, we praise you and rejoice in your creation.
Come into this space and know the Shepherd of this world,
the Advocate and Comforter of all who rejoice,
all who grieve, all who hurt, all who love
Christ of many names, we follow you and take heart in your teaching.
Come into this space and know the Breath becoming Word,
Wisdom who was the first and before any beginning
Spirit of many names, we delight in you and seek you in all things.
Even though you are already among us, we call to you,
giving thanks for your presence in all the forms
you have been and will be, now and forever.

Confession

LeAnne Zook

I breathe in and see all around me your beautiful world and yet I am easily distracted by my own needs, my own greed, my own desires.
What am I that you care for me when I do not always care about the generous bounty around me?

I live among those who are weeping with sorrow, raging with anger, aching with hurt and yet I can only find capacity to tend my own tears and to comfort only those within the reach of my arms.

What am I that you are mindful of me when I struggle to be find space to be mindful of those around me?

We build and maintain institutions of church, of state, of money that profess to not do evil but harm in large and small ways the most vulnerable among us.

What are we that you are mindful of us even when are not mindful of our own power?

The world hurts and aches, every day new wounds are created by war, by poverty, by violence, by neglect, by economic injustice, by greed.

What are we that you care for us even when we cannot care for what you have created?

We call on you, she who is named Wisdom. Fill us with your mercy.
