Confessing

Confession David Conrad

Merciful God, we mourn the violence and injustice that takes root in many forms in many places far and near
Merciful God, we thirst for your peace.

We recognize the roots of conflict in ourselves
And our complicity in systems of power and control
Merciful God, we thirst for your reconciliation
We confess that stereotypes, envy, suspicion, and racism shape our perceptions and influence our actions.

Merciful God, we thirst for your truth.
We acknowledge that at times, we fear our neighbors.

Merciful God, we thirst for your love.
We repent of the ways we contribute to suspicion, fear and violence,
Guide us as we reaffirm our calling as your peacemakers.
Grant us courage to risk loving each of our neighbors at home and around the globe.

Satisfy our thirst by leading us to your living water. Amen.
