Call to Worship

Cynthia Lapp

People of God, look about and see the faces of those we know and love —

neighbors and friends, sisters and brothers and siblings, a community of kindred hearts.

People of God, look about and see faces of those we hardly know —

strangers, sojourners, forgotten friends,
the ones who need an outstretched hand.

People of God, look about you and see all the images of God assembled here.

In me, in you, in each of us, God's Spirit shines for all to see.

People of God, come.

Let us worship together

Anne-Claire Frank-Seisay, Richard Brown,
Juan Hernandez & David Conrad

“In the Last Days,” God says,
“I will pour out my Spirit on every kind of people:
Your sons will prophesy, and also your daughters;
Your young people will see visions,
your elders will dream dreams.
When the time comes, I’ll pour out my Spirit
On those who serve me, women and men,
non-binary and queer, and they will prophesy.
I will set wonders in the sky above
and signs on the earth below,
Blood and fire and billowing smoke,
the sun turning black and the moon blood-red,
Before the coming of the great and sublime day of our God.
And whoever calls out for help to me, to God, will be saved.”

Hymn: VT 372 – Wind Who Makes All Wind that Blow (v. 3)

Franklins will donate 20% of your before-tax total -- be sure to show your receipt and mention to the host to participate. Franklin's is located at 5123 Baltimore Ave and can be contacted at 301-927-2740.

Death Café, June 12: On Sunday, June 12, during Adult Ed hour, Sharon Andre will lead us in another "Death Café," where we gather, simply as people who are going to die, to listen to each other and discuss death and dying with empathy and care. "Death Cafes" (<https://deathcafe.com/>) have been held around the world and exist to increase awareness of death so that we may make the most of our finite lives on earth. Also, to share tea and cake! We will meet in the fellowship hall from 9:30 to 10:30.
