Confessing

Confession

God who touches the Earth with beauty

We confess that we need new hearts.

We have poisoned our springs, and arrested the waves.

God, let justice crash over us.

We have felled mighty pines and polluted the heavens.

God, forgive our arrogance.

Through mining we have torn down towering rocks of grandeur.

God, steady us in your love.

We have too often languished in denial or doom.

God, turn our dreams to noble action.
